been an active member of the American Legion since his discharge from the United States Army in 1921 and has held numerous offices and committee assignments in his post and department, including that of Department Commander, and is now serving his fourth successive term as National Executive Committeeman from the Department of Texas; and,

No. 14, Providing for the appointment of a joint committee to investigate and make recommendations as to the advisability of establishing institutions for the care, examination and treatment of delinquent and under privileged children, and generally as to the prevention of child delinquency and rehabilitation of delinquent children.

Whereas, one of the most important problems before the people of the State of Texas is that of the care, treatment and rehabilitation of under privileged and delinquent children and prevention of child delinquency:

Whereas, such problems will become increasingly important in the post war period;

Whereas, the state and local subdivisions have inadequate facilities and procedure for the care, examination, specialized study, and treatment of delinquent and underprivileged children committed to a reformatory, industrial school or other institutions; and,

Whereas, the state and its subdivisions spend many millions of dollars annually upon care of the insane, feeble-minded, epileptic, tubercular, and physically ill, and upon jails, reformatories and penitentiaries, but have given little attention to the prevention of child delinquency and rehabilitation of delinquent children; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, that a joint committee of the House and Senate, consisting of six members, be appointed, three members of the Senate to be appointed by the president of the Senate, and three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, for the purpose of investigating and studying the advisability of establishing institutions for the care, examination, specialized study, and treatment of delinquent, under privileged and mal-adjusted children, and generally to investigate and study the subjects of prevention of child delinquency and rehabilitation of delinquent children.

S. C. R. No. 15, Relative to beautification of public highways and grounds.

Whereas, the Texas Roadside Development Program, a citizens organization sponsored and advised by the State Highway Department, has for the past several years undertaken to encourage the improvement of properties adjacent to the highways, and

Whereas, the State Highway Department of the State of Texas has in the past undertaken to improve and beautify the roadside of the highway system and has had unstinted public approval and support in such effort, and

Whereas, when peace is restored and Texas men and women in the service return home we hope to make our peace time state more attractive to them and to ourselves, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we urge the cities and towns of Texas, through their Chambers of Commerce, garden clubs and various civic organizations, to inaugurate the planting and propagation of a county selected indigenous tree and/or flowering shrub in the yards of homes in towns and along the highways, on public building grounds, and at entrances to the towns and cities, so that each town and each county may be identified as a city or a county of oleander, redbud, wisteria, etc., depending upon its choice, and thus reflect a uniform and pleasing planting motif as a living honor to Texas men and women in the service.

The resolution was read, and by unanimous consent was considered immediately and adopted.
